Resources for children and teenagers are intended to broaden their vision, support recreational reading, encourage and facilitate reading skills, supplement their educational needs, stimulate and widen their interests, and lead to recognition and appreciation of literature and reflect the diversity of the community and our world. Parents and legal guardians have the sole responsibility for their child’s reading, viewing, and listening of library materials. The library does not intrude on that relationship, nor can materials be limited by the possibility that it may inadvertently come into the possession of minors.
9. ~~The library welcomes donations of materials, with the understanding that they will be evaluated using the same criteria as those applied to purchased materials. If the donations do not meet these criteria, the library reserves the right to dispose of them as~~

~~it sees fit. All donations of library materials are subject to the library's Gifts and Donations Policy. The library welcomes donations and suggestions for titles to add to our collection. We have created these guidelines to answer questions from local or self-published authors as well as individuals interested in donating resources to the library:~~

- ~~a. All content added to the collection must meet the selection criteria in our Collection Development Policy.~~
- ~~b. Our primary goal is to add resources that will appeal to a broad audience or have local significance.~~
- ~~c. A positive review in a major review journal (such as Kirkus Reviews, Booklist, or Library Journal) is the best way to bring a title to our attention. We do not consider paid reviews or Amazon reviews. Availability to purchase the book from a library vendor (such as Baker & Taylor or Ingram) will significantly increase the likelihood that we will add it to the collection.~~
- ~~d. Due to time constraints and the volume of inquiries we receive, we are unable to meet with individual authors, or to notify authors of our decision.~~
- ~~e. If you wish to bring a book to our attention, you can send information via email to [insert email here]. Please include:~~
  - ~~i. Information about the book – title, author, ISBN, publisher, publish date, distributor.~~
  - ~~ii. Links to any professional reviews or news coverage.~~
  - ~~iii. A brief description of the book and its intended audience.~~
- ~~f. Area residents may donate one copy of your book to the library. All donations become the property of the library. We will review the book and, if it meets our selection criteria, we will add it to the collection.~~
- ~~g. Donations not added cannot be returned to the donor, but will be sent to the Friends of the Appleton Public Library to sell at their book sales, in accordance with library policies.~~

~~9-10. _____ The library collection ~~will be~~ kept attractive and current by a continual program of repairing, ~~discarding~~ or replacing worn, under-utilized, and obsolete materials. Withdrawn materials may be donated to the Friends of Appleton Public Library or disposed of by other means as determined by the library in accordance with other library and city policies.~~

~~10-11. _____ Plans for the development of specific collections may be written by library staff as needed. These plans may outline selection and acquisition procedures, reviewing tools, and maintenance of the specific collection. All such plans shall ~~be in compliance with and responsive to the philosophy of~~ comply with this policy. ~~Some mResourcesaterials may be placed~~ organized in collections according to age appropriateness, literacy level, format or language. ~~appropriateness.~~~~

~~12. Selection of and access to electronic resources are integral to fulfilling APL's mission. The library links to web-based resources available via the library's website. These resources are evaluated using this policy.~~

~~11.13. APL belongs to several consortium organizations that provides content for use by our patrons and provides content in return. The library is the resource library for the Outagamie Waupaca Library System. Additionally, our interlibrary loan (ILL) service expands access to resources outside of the library's collection.~~

~~The library will challenge censorship of any materials in order to provide complete and accurate information on all sides of an issue, and to foster a climate of intellectual freedom for area residents.~~

14. Despite the care taken in selection, it is natural for differences of opinion regarding suitable material or material location to arise. Thus, individuals may discuss their personal objections to the inclusion or exclusion of a specific item with ~~a library staffer~~.

If the discussion does not satisfy the individual, and the individual resides in the library's legal service area as described by Wis. Stat. § 43.52, they may choose to complete a Request for Reconsideration, available at any service desk or online. The form will be forwarded to the appropriate staff in charge of similar ~~materials~~resources, who will consider the request in a timely fashion in consultation with the director. The ~~questioned material~~material questioned will be reviewed, in its entirety, and once a decision has been made regarding the retention or removal of the material the director will issue a letter to the person explaining the decision. The item will remain as part of the collection until the review is final.

If the person is dissatisfied with the decision of the library director, ~~he/she/they~~ may appeal to the APL Board of Trustees ("library board") within fourteen (14) regular business days after the mailing date of the decision. The library board will reconsider the decision based at its next regularly scheduled meeting, allowing for fourteen (14) calendar days review time by the library board. Should the library board receive multiple appeals, they may extend the timeline to assure a thorough review of the appeals in question. The board will create a schedule and ~~the person-individual(s)~~ appealing the decision shall be notified of the date, time, and location of the meeting when the library board will hear the matter and may appear at the meeting to be heard as part of public participation. Should the person requesting the appeal ~~be~~ unable to appear in person, ~~he/she/they~~ may ask the library board to consider the merits of the request based on a written statement.

The library board shall base its reconsideration decision on whether the ~~decision material~~ conforms to this policy. T~~and the matter request~~ will be heard and voted on in accordance with the Board of Trustee's Bylaws Policy. The decision of the library board shall be final.
