

October 25, 2025

This dashboard shows respiratory virus activity and trajectories for the week ending on October 25, 2025.

To view data for a specific Wisconsin public health region, click below.
Northeastern Region

Overall respiratory illness activity based on emergency department visits (Northeastern Region)
This represents a wide variety of respiratory illnesses that lead to ED visits, ranging from the common cold to COVID-19, flu, and RSV.

Low Activity

Stable

➔

Virus specific activity based on emergency department visits (Northeastern Region)

COVID-19	Influenza	RSV
Minimal Activity	Minimal Activity	Minimal Activity
Stable	Stable	Stable
➔	➔	➔

Updated: 10/30/2025

COVID-19 Wastewater Monitoring in Wisconsin

Dashboard Updated: 11/5/2025

Total population served: 2,944,691

9/2/2024

Slide to pick start date

Statewide presence of SARS-CoV-2 in wastewater

SARS-CoV-2 concentration categories

Click on the list to select a sewershed. Click again to deselect.

Significant increase +

Appleton
Ashland
Baraboo
Black River Falls
Brookfield (Fox River)
Clintonville
De Pere
Eau Claire
Fond du Lac
Green Bay
Hartford
Hayward
Hudson
Janesville
Kenosha
La Crosse
Lancaster
Lodi
Madison
Manitowoc
Marinette
Marshfield
Mauston
Menomonie
Merrill
Milwaukee (Jones Island)
Milwaukee (South Shore)
Monroe

Statewide average SARS-CoV-2 levels in wastewater over time

Appleton

Estimated population served: 72,810

Category:

Low

Trajectory:

No alert

Wastewater concentration of SARS-CoV-2 within the Appleton sewershed

☒ Linear Scale
☐ Log Scale

A linear scale is more helpful to follow short-term trends over time.

A log scale is more helpful when there are major increases or decreases.

9/2/2024

Slide to pick start date

