

You Can Help ...

Every year The Marigold Mile endeavors to plant upwards of 10,000 marigolds. As you might imagine, volunteers are always needed to help prepare beds, plant flowers, and then water and weed throughout the short growing season.

Are you up to the task? If so, please contact Marigold Mike, our volunteer coordinator, through our Facebook page or send an e-mail to him at: marigoldmike@att.net.

Appleton's Historic Marigold Mile

Original Oil Painting by Phyllis Verhyen, Award-winning Artist

Fine art giclée reproductions available with proceeds to benefit The Marigold Mile.

What is a giclée? The first thing you need to know is that it's pronounced 'Zhee-Clay'. Giclée is a neologism of the French word 'la giclée' meaning 'that which is sprayed or squirted'. Coined in 1991 by printmaker Jack Duganne, the name originally applied to fine art digital prints created on Iris inkjet printers in a process invented in the late 1980s. It is, however, important to understand that not all inkjet prints are giclées.

A true giclée is the highest quality reproduction print possible of an original painting or drawing. Giclées are created by utilizing high resolution, digital images on canvas, fine art or photo-base paper with the use of large-format, six- to twelve-color inkjet printers. In true giclée printing, no screen or other mechanical devices are used; therefore, there is no visible dot screen pattern.

This process maintains all the same colors, textures, and brush marks of the original art work. Archival quality ensures that the prints are light-fast and non water soluble.

PRINTS MAY ALSO BE ORDERED ONLINE AT WWW.MARIGOLDMILE.COM
