

Sec. 3-1. Definitions.

Animal at large means an animal that is off the property and/ or premises of the owner and/ or caretaker and not under restraint.

Leash: a strap, chain, or cord that is no more than eight (8) feet in length and of appropriate strength to control the animal, used by a person of sufficient capability to restrain, control, and guide an animal.

Molests: excessive barking, running up to or charging, threatening, jumping on or otherwise harassing people or other domestic animals or the passing public that are in the public right-of-way, or on public property, or on their own property, or property of anyone other than the owner and/or caretaker of the animal.

Restraint means that the animal is secured by a leash ~~or lead~~, not more than eight (8) feet in length and under the control of a responsible person and obedient to that person's command, or within the real property limits of its owner.

Sec. 3-15. Restraint, nuisance animals.

(a) The owner and/or caretaker of any animal shall keep an animal within the limits of his or her property and/or premises and when off of the property and/ or premises, the animal shall be confine, restrained or maintain control over the animal so that the unprovoked animal does not run at large, attack or injure any person or domesticated animal, or become a public nuisance. For purposes of this section, the phrase "running at large" encompasses all places within the City except the owner's premises, and includes all streets, alleys, sidewalks, other public areas where animals are permitted, and private property.

(b) All owners and/ or caretakers shall exercise proper care and control of ~~their~~ animals under their ownership, possession, and/ or custody to prevent them from becoming a public nuisance.
