

SECURITY AND SAFETY POLICY

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to maintain a safe, welcoming and secure environment for ~~the staff of the Appleton Public Library ("Library") and the public~~ all Appleton Public Library ("APL" or "library") users and staff, as well as ensure equitable access to materials and services for all library users in accordance with the Library's Rules of Conduct Policy.

II. POLICY

1. Overview. The library welcomes all and is dedicated to free and equal access to information. The library is in a unique position to educate and serve as a gathering place for the community.

In order to facilitate an environment conducive to the library's mission, patrons shall be engaged in activities typically associated with the use of a public library while in the building. No individual may engage in inappropriate conduct on library premises. Inappropriate conduct includes any individual or group activity which is unreasonably disturbing to other individuals lawfully using library facilities, materials, equipment and/or premises or is otherwise inconsistent with activities such as reading, studying, properly using library materials and other similar conduct typically associated with a public library.

When possible, staff will first educate individuals about the applicable policies before taking stronger measures to enforce those policies. In situations where library staff members feel that the health, safety or security of library users or staff members are threatened, they make take any and all appropriate action including, but not limited to, calling the police for assistance.

2. Monitoring. Library staff will monitor public behavior using staff and security equipment, subject to provisions of Wis. Stat. § 43.30 and the library's Privacy Policy. The library reserves the right to inspect bags, briefcases, backpacks or other personal items.

3. Enforcement. Enforcement of this policy is the responsibility of all Library staff. Staff members are expected to ~~deal with~~ address any inappropriate behavior they encounter. Supervisors, professional librarians and ~~o~~perations ~~c~~lerks are expected to have a greater awareness of this policy and exhibit a willingness to step in and serve as a resource in helping other staff deal with problems.

a. Asking for Help. Staff members have the right to ask other staff members, security and/or the police for assistance and should provide assistance to other staff when able and requested.

b. Contacting Police. Staff members may contact the Appleton Police Department (“APD”) at any time to preserve his or her own safety, the safety of the public, and to request assistance in enforcing this policy and preserving the library environment as defined by the policies adopted by the Library Board of Trustees (“library board”).

c. Using Judgment. Staff members who have acted with reasonable judgment in addressing violations of library policies and any other law, rule or regulation will be supported by their supervisor, the librarian in charge and the administration.

4. Responses to Inappropriate Behavior. Inappropriate behavior will be addressed with a response proportionate to the severity of the behavior.

a. Eviction. The library reserves the right at all times to immediately evict a patron that is dangerous or in any way threatening library staff or other patrons. Additionally, all staff have the ability to evict patrons for the remainder of the day should patrons ignore staff requests to comply with library policies., with the exception of the Class 1 behavior, as defined in Section 5(a) below, which requires the APD be contacted immediately, followed by contacting the librarian in charge or their supervisor.

b. ~~———— Juvenile Patrons~~. If a juvenile patron violates a Rule of Conduct, or any other rule or regulation, staff may contact their parent/guardian.

c. ~~————~~

b. Restriction.

i. ~~———— Authority~~. The library board delegates authority to restrict people from the library to the Library Director and Assistant Director. If the Director and Assistant Director are unavailable, a Section Supervisor may restrict an individual for up to fourteen (14) consecutive days. The library board may also restrict individuals from entering the library for a specified limited time, indefinitely, pending some specified legal condition or ruling, or permanently. Evictions will generally be from the Library building as a whole, not just an area, and is generally for the balance of the day. The library board may also restrict individuals from entering the library a specified limited time, indefinitely, pending some specified legal condition or ruling, or Permanently.

ii. Length. The length of a restriction will ~~depend on~~ be proportionate to the severity of the offense, whether there are prior offenses, and the safety of staff and patrons, as applicable, though other factors may be considered.

iii. Notice. ~~When a patron receives a library restriction,~~ The patron and the APD must be notified within 2 business days of the decision to restrict. The notice must include the duration of the restriction. The notice may be delivered by the ~~of the restriction in writing by the Library Director, or designee~~ assistant director, the librarian in charge, the police, or delivered by certified mail, and the information must be made available to library staff. Should a restricted patron return to the library in violation of the restriction, staff should contact the APD and the individual may be cited for trespassing.

iii. Documentation. The notice of restriction and all related records will be maintained in accordance with the library's Privacy Policy and Records Retention Schedule.

iv. Scope of Authority. This policy refers to restrictions and consequences imposed by the library but does not preclude or supersede other consequences or penalties that may be imposed by federal, state or local law.

v. Juvenile Patrons. If a juvenile patron violates this policy, or any other rule or regulation, staff may contact their parent/guardian.

1. As an alternative to restricting a juvenile, they may be restricted from independent use of the library for a specified period of time depending on the severity of the violation. During this time the juvenile whose library use is restricted may use the library only when the juvenile is accompanied by a responsible parent or guardian.

2. The juvenile's parent or guardian must be notified of the restriction via certified mail or the notice may be delivered by the APD. Failure to abide by the restriction may lead to restricting the juvenile from the library completely and they may be cited for trespassing by the APD.

cd. Use of Equipment. Staff members may stop a patron from using Library equipment, or may contact a supervisor about a patron's use of equipment, if the use violates a rule or policy. Supervisors may restrict patrons from using public access computers for 30 days if a violation is found. Should the violation warrant, the library director or assistant director may determine to restrict a patron's from using the Library in its entirety. Misuse or abuse of computers or internet access may result in suspension of internet access, restriction from the library in its entirety as described in this policy and may also be subject to prosecution by local, state or federal authorities. ~~if the patron violated a rule or policy by placing the reason and length of the restriction in writing and providing it to the patron.~~ de. Warnings. Staff members may issue a verbal warning or may refer a problem to ~~a operations staff monitor, supervisor or~~ the librarian in charge or a supervisor, unless it involves a Class 1 offense pursuant to sections 65(a) herein, in which case the APD must be contacted.

ef. Identification. Staff members are authorized to request identification from library patrons as necessary and appropriate for safety and security, or when library rules have been violated. Refusal to identify oneself under these circumstances may be grounds for contacting the APD.

f. Communication. Library staff will communicate disciplinary actions with one another, including reports to the supervisor, operations staff or the librarian in charge. All disciplinary actions must be documented by library staff.

5. ~~g. Photographs. Staff members have the right to take photographs of patrons as needed to identify them for security purposes.~~ Video Surveillance and Photography. Security cameras are used to enhance the safety and security of library users and staff to discourage violations of this policy, to assist library staff in preventing the occurrence of violations and when necessary, to provide law enforcement assistance in the investigation of a criminal occurrence on library property and in prosecuting criminal activity.

a. Video cameras may be located in indoor or outdoor locations where individuals lack a reasonable expectation of privacy. Cameras will not be installed in areas of the library where individuals have a reasonable expectation of privacy such as private offices or restrooms.

b. The City of Appleton ("City") may mount cameras on the exterior of the library building that provide surveillance of public spaces. These cameras are not library cameras and are not covered by this policy.

c. Video footage and photographs are used in accordance with the library's Privacy Policy and Record's Retention Schedule.

d. Cameras are not continuously monitored. Personal safety is the responsibility of the individual and the City is not responsible for lost or stolen property.

e. Staff members have the right to take photographs of patrons as needed to identify them for security purposes.

~~k. Communication. Library staff will communicate disciplinary actions with one another, including reports to the supervisor, operations staff or librarian in charge. Disciplinary actions beyond verbal warnings must be documented by library staff.~~
